Description:	Howdy, I am a retired horse person &amp; equine rescue worker. Looking to find the right horse fit for me to love and cherish. My paint mare passed with cancer this spring. Horse must be gentle, no spook or crazy head. I have ridden and owned horses all of my life. Trained for several years. I still rescue mini donks and skinny horses for TrueBlueAnimalRescue. I have outstanding references. I know that there is a horse out there that needs a good home with plenty of room and love. Being retired, I can not afford a high dollar horse and have tried a couple in the past. One put me in the hospital. I need a best friend who needs me to love her and to ride her with respect and care. I know one is out there. I have a nice place for her to live, lots of hay fields and grooming everyday. Plus custom horse trailer to haul her in. Thanks for reading. If you know she is out there waiting for me, please call me. Thank you.
