Other Info:	Passion Horse is a non-profit horse rescue. Once a year, Passion Horse rescues PMU (Premarin) babies that are destined for slaughter. They are in their 6th year of performing such a daunting task. Debra and Jeff Naismith run this operation, which the generous help of some permanent volunteers. The horses are cared for and trained. The Naismiths are very thorough with their interview process for prospective owners. Their ownership package includes lessons, training, and 30 days boarding to help and educate the new owners on their exciting journey. Most of their horses are draft crosses.
Directions:	Drive south from Cleburne on SH 174 to Rio Vista. Turn left into town of Rio Vista on West Depot Street/CR 916. Turn sharp right onto South Cleburne Whitney Road/CR 1206 (you will pass the Rio Vista Middle Elementary and Middle Schools), and follow the curve to the left and pass over Mustang Creek. At the dead-end, turn right onto CR 1102. Follow the curve left and continue up the hill where CR 1102 turns into FM 2488 at the Hill County Line (Windy Hill Farms' north fence line). The farm address is 1104 FM 2488, Rio Vista, TX 76093. It is a white gingerbread farmhouse with a white picket fence. A black mailbox is on the right side of the road with the numbers 1104 on top of it.
